

Drawing, Painting & Photography Competition

Goolum Goolum is now calling for entries for a drawing, photography and painting competition from local Aboriginal youth aged 9-19 years. The theme of this competition is Seasons. So whatever your drawing, photo or painting; we'd like to explain in 10 lines or less, how it relates to the theme. Each person may submit up to 5 entries.

DEADLINE : 5pm, Thursday 1st September, 2011. Winners announced on Thursday 8th September, 2011.

ELIGIBILITY: Open to Aboriginal youth aged 9-19 yrs living in the Wimmera-Northern Grampians region.

ENTRY FEE: Free

JURORS: Richard Hudson, Johnny Gorton and Kim Drummond

AWARDS: All entries will be exhibited on our blog slide show. Winners will be featured on our Facebook page and our blog. If we receive a sufficient number of entries, all entries will be placed on exhibition in a public space.

- The winner will receive $300 cash and have their photo taken and feature on our Facebook page and blog.
- The runner up will receive $100 cash and have their photo taken and feature on our Facebook page and blog.
- The second runner up will receive $50 cash and have their photo taken and feature on our Facebook page and blog.

TO ENTER : Pick up an entry form from Goolum Goolum, our website (<http://goolumgoolum.org.au/Youth.html>) or Budja Budja and send it in with your work. Please bring in drawings, photos or paintings to Goolum Goolum, before the due date. If you take digital photos or photos of your work, please send them by email as JPEG files. Email through by sending to richard.hudson@goolumgoolum.org.au . All entries will be photographed for entry onto the blog slideshow.
